

Hello,

Thank you for the data that you provided on your student's communication. It is often difficult to identify what students say that make their message hard to understand. The data that you provided indicates a lot of strong language abilities. I would like to plan a time to meet to talk about how a child's communication progresses and how to support language development in the classroom.

Thank you for all that you do!